

Dr. Agim Kasaj

Agim Kasaj is Deputy Administrator and Head of ICT Office, Head of the Center for Technology Development and Innovation and Lecturer at European University of Tirana. Agim Kasaj is a well-known expert in the field of Technology Information in Albania. After completing his undergraduate studies in Finance (1998-2002), he attended the master's degree in Business Administration at Tirana University (2004-2006). Then he received a master's degree on Economic Informatics from the European University of Tirana (2010-2011). Since 2012, Mr. Kasaj has received a PhD in Management Information Systems at the European University of Tirana. During 2015-2016 he stayed in Lisbon for a PhD Research on Technology Acceptance Models, a research project conducted between the European University of Tirana in Albania and Nova University in Lisbon, Portugal. Mr. Kasaj has an extended experience in the public and private IT and Business Administration sector. In 2013 he was Member of the Management Board of Immoveable Properties Registration Office (IPRO). During 2011-2013 Mr. Kasaj has been working as IT Director in the Ministry of Justice. Mr. Kasaj is currently the Vice Administrator since 2013, the Head of ICT since 2007 with 3 years off in between and Head of the Center for Technology Development and Innovation since 2022. At the same time has been lecturing at the European University of Tirana, since 2007. He has a teaching experience in public and private universities in Albania. Mr. Kasaj has been developing research and capacity building projects in the field of IT and Business Management with the support of international non-governmental organizations such as USAID, etc. Agim Kasaj has a deep expertise in the field of ICT and Business Administration in Albania. He has received a PhD in Management Information Systems and a master's degree on Economic Informatics from the European University of Tirana and a second master's degree on Business Administration from the University of Tirana. Mr. Kasaj has an extended experience in the public and private IT and Business Administration sector. From 2011 Mr. Kasaj has been working as ICT Director in the Ministry of Justice. As part of his job at the Ministry of Justice, he leded top three national wide project in the role of Project Manager: "Bailiff electronic case management system", "Improvement of electronic Integrated court case management system (ICMIS)", and "Albanian Notarial Service Digitalization". Apart from implementing several different systems required for the European University of Tirana, he personally implemented a full Learning Management System (LMS) for the first time for this university. Mr. Kasaj has a long teaching experience in public and private Universities in Albania. Mr. Kasaj has been developing nationwide research and capacity building projects in the field of IT and Business Management with the support of international non-governmental organizations (USAID, World Bank etc.). Moreover, Mr. Kasaj has undertaken a series of trainings and seminars, where he has been certified for programs such as CMMI, "PMP", "Managing Federal Grants and the USAID Cooperative Agreement and MCHIP Program", "Global Finance Training", etc.