

Dr. Flora Krasniqi

Dr. Flora Krasniqi is the head of the Office of Internationalization and Projects at POLIS University. Lead manager of Erasmus and Tempus capacity building projects, led by POLIS University, as well as other projects, funded by national and international programs. Very good communication and analytical skills, strong networking skills, ability to manage the project cycle from early stage to final report, with an extensive portfolio in project management and absorption.

Specific interest in the sustainable development of links between the university and business with a special focus on Innovation, Academic and Applied Research.

Coordinator at POLIS University for the “Erasmus Exchange” program for staff and students.

Lecturer of several subjects and modules such as: Academic Writing; Scientific Research Methods; Organizational behavior