

Iva Cibilić, MSc
Curriculum vitae- short

Iva Cibilić was born on November 11, 1995. in Dubrovnik, where she finished high school. In 2014 she enrolled in the bachelor study of Geodesy and Geoinformatics in Zagreb, and in 2017 she enrolled in the master study at the same faculty, where she graduated in 2020. During her master studies, she participated in Erasmus international student exchange program and spent a semester at Polytechnic University of Valencia (UPV).

After graduating, she was employed at the Faculty of Geodesy in Zagreb as a teaching and research assistant at the Chair of Cartography. She is currently conducting exercises in the courses Geovisualization, Practical Cartography, Thematic Cartography, Cartography. She actively participates in several international projects (GEOCLIC, GEOBIZ, SEED4NA, TODO and UN4DRR), also actively participates in international and domestic conferences, trainings, and publishes papers in domestic and international journals.