

Martin Oldenburg

Prof. Dr. Martin Oldenburg as contact person from TH OWL is responsible for the section "Biological wastewater treatment and reuse". Educated as civil engineer he changed from his position in a consultancy office to the TH OWL in 2009. He is His research interests are located in the field of resource orientated sanitation systems and the simulation of processes in wastewater transport and treatment. He has experience from a long cooperation with the cooperation in three Erasmus+-projects with the coordinator from Norway with partners from Poland, Ukraine, Sri Lanka and China as well as three Erasmus-projects with other partners from Austria, Portugal, Syria and Jordan. Furthermore he is involved in different research projects on national level.